FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

The Solomon Reset

This isn't a planning worksheet.

This is a decision tool to help you define which financial path you're choosing to walk from here on.

You've completed The Solomon Reset. You've seen the pattern, understood the systems, and recognized what becomes possible.

Now there's only one thing left: the decision.

This guide helps you make it clearly and consciously.

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

This isn't about tactics. It's about identity.

You're not deciding what to do first. You're deciding who you're going to be.

Take your time. Answer honestly. This is between you and God.

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

PART 1: WHAT CHANGED

Before this journey, you were operating from confusion. Now you have clarity.

Write down what shifted for you:

Before The Solomon Reset:

I thought the problem was:

I believed the solution was:

I felt: (circle all that apply)

Frustrated | Trapped | Confused | Ashamed | Hopeless | Anxious | Stuck

After The Solomon Reset:

Now I understand the problem is:

Now I know the solution involves:

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

Now I feel: (circle all that apply)

Clearer | Hopeful | Responsible | Empowered | Focused | Convicted | Ready

The biggest insight I gained was:

PART 2: THE TWO PATHS (REVIEW)

Before you make your decision, review what each path actually produces:

The Modern Financial Path:

Operating Principles:

- Debt is normal
- Credit is leverage
- Speed matters most
- Consumption shows success

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

- More income solves problems

Where It Leads:

- Constant financial pressure
- Debt that returns
- Working hard, staying in place
- Stress that bleeds everywhere

The Biblical Financial Path:

Operating Principles:

- Debt is bondage (avoid it)
- Patience builds wealth
- Contentment is wisdom
- Margin creates freedom
- Different system, different outcome

Where It Leads:

- Actual financial freedom

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

- Decisions from peace
- Generosity without stress
- Stability that survives crisis

Which path have you been walking?

Which path do you want to walk from here?

PART 3: THE DECISION

This is the most important part. Not what you'll do — but who you'll be.

I Am Choosing:

Circle one:

THE BIBLICAL FINANCIAL PATH

(Committing to operate from biblical principles, even when it's countercultural)

STILL DECIDING

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

(Need more time, prayer, or clarity before committing)

STAYING ON THE MODERN PATH

(Acknowledging this choice consciously)

If You Chose the Biblical Path:

Write your commitment:

I, _____, choose to walk the biblical financial path.

This means I commit to:

- [] Avoiding debt whenever possible
- [] Living below my means to create margin
- [] Making financial decisions from biblical principles, not cultural pressure
- [] Building wealth God's way, not the world's way
- [] Being patient with the process
- [] Operating from contentment, not comparison

Date: _____

Signature: _____

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

PART 4: WHAT THIS COMMITMENT MEANS

Be clear about what you're committing to (and what you're not):

This Commitment MEANS:

- [] I'll avoid debt, even when it would be "convenient"
- [] I'll resist lifestyle inflation when income increases
- [] I'll make different choices than my peers sometimes
- [] I'll prioritize long-term stability over short-term comfort
- [] I'll operate from biblical wisdom, not cultural norms
- [] I'll be patient with the process, even when it's slow

This Commitment DOES NOT Mean:

- [] I'll never struggle financially
- [] I'll become wealthy quickly
- [] I'll never make mistakes
- [] I'll be perfect at this
- [] Life will suddenly get easy

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

- [] I'll judge others who choose differently

PART 5: YOUR FIRST STEPS

Identity precedes action. But action reinforces identity.

Based on the path you've chosen, what are your first three steps?

Step 1 (This Week):

Step 2 (This Month):

Step 3 (This Quarter):

PART 6: IDENTIFYING YOUR OBSTACLES

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

What will try to pull you back to the old path?

External Obstacles:

Financial pressures:

Cultural expectations:

People who won't understand:

Internal Obstacles:

Old patterns I'll be tempted to repeat:

Situations where I typically use credit:

Areas where I struggle with contentment:

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

How will I respond when these obstacles arise?

PART 7: YOUR ACCOUNTABILITY

Walking a different path is easier with support.

Who will walk this with me?

Name: _____ Relationship: _____

How will they support me?

Who will I tell about this decision?

What do I need from my faith community?

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

PART 8: SCRIPTURE ANCHORS

Write down 2-3 verses that will anchor you to the biblical financial path:

Verse 1:

Verse 2:

Verse 3:

PART 9: THE VISION

What are you building toward?

In 5 years, if I consistently walk the biblical path, my financial life will look like:

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

In 10 years:

The legacy I want to leave:

PART 10: WHEN YOU'RE TEMPTED TO GO BACK

(And you will be.)

Read this to yourself:

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

I chose the biblical financial path not because it's easy, but because it leads somewhere different.

The old path is always available. I can go back anytime. But I know where it leads — I've walked it long enough to see the outcome.

Going back now wouldn't be an accident. It would be a choice.

When I'm tempted to:

- Use credit when things get tight
- Chase more income instead of addressing patterns
- Give up because progress feels slow
- Compare myself to others and feel behind

I will remember:

- Debt is bondage, not a tool (Proverbs 22:7)
- Patience builds what lasts
- Comparison steals peace
- I'm building something sustainable, not just surviving
- This is a journey, not a sprint

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

- God's way works — even when it's slow

I chose this path consciously. I'm not going back unconsciously.

PART 11: CONTINUING THE JOURNEY

The Solomon Reset is complete. But the journey continues.

Questions I still have:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Topics I want to learn more about:

- [] Building wealth biblically
- [] Passive income that aligns with principles
- [] Teaching kids about money God's way
- [] Generosity and stewardship
- [] Investing from biblical values
- [] Other: _____

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

PART 12: YOUR DECLARATION

Write a short declaration of who you're choosing to be financially:

I am someone who...

I no longer...

I now...

Because I believe...

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

FINAL REMINDER

After you see the path clearly, going back stops being an accident. It becomes a choice.

That doesn't make you a bad person. It just makes the choice clearer.

You now know:

- The pattern that kept you trapped
- The two financial systems
- What each path produces
- What becomes possible on the biblical path

Whatever you do from here is a conscious decision.

That's not pressure. That's clarity.

And clarity is what makes change possible.

PRAYER

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

Lord,

*I've seen the path You've laid out in Your Word.

I choose to walk it, even when it's countercultural.

Give me strength when I'm tempted to go back.

Give me patience when progress feels slow.

Give me wisdom to make decisions that honor You.

Help me build something that lasts — for Your glory and my family's future.*

*In Jesus' name,

Amen.*

You've completed The Solomon Reset.

The map is clear. The choice is made.

Now walk it.

"Commit to the Lord whatever you do, and he will establish your plans."*

— Proverbs 16:3

FINANCIAL PATH DECISION GUIDE

The plans of the diligent lead to profit as surely as haste leads to poverty.
